Central Ohio Health Systems Announce Collaborative Effort to Coordinate Collection of Medical Supplies

(COLUMBUS, OH) The four central Ohio healthcare systems announced today a collaborative effort to coordinate the collection of needed personal protective equipment and medical supplies for the benefit of all central Ohioans.

The health systems, which include OhioHealth, The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center, Mount Carmel Health System and Nationwide Children's Hospital, are working together to provide a safe, convenient way to donate needed medical supplies at multiple locations in a way that honors the Governor's and the State's directives on social distancing and group gatherings.

Mount Carmel, Ohio State and OhioHealth have opened drive-up, drop-off sites to allow individuals to donate at the following locations:

The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center

The OSU Wexner Medical Center warehouse at 610 Ackerman Road. For more information on how to donate visit: <https://wexnermedical.osu.edu/features/coronavirus/ways-to-help/donate-supplies>
