

STEPHEN E. MARKOVICH, MD
PRESIDENT AND CEO, OHIOHEALTH

Stephen E. Markovich, MD, brings a unique blend of knowledge and experience to his role as president and chief executive officer for OhioHealth. In addition to being a healthcare executive, he is also a physician and military leader.

After earning a Doctor of Medicine degree, magna cum laude, from The Ohio State University College of Medicine, Dr. Markovich completed his residency in family medicine. He has practiced as a family and emergency physician at OhioHealth Riverside Methodist Hospital and served as clinical assistant professor in the Department of Family Medicine at The Ohio State University. Dr. Markovich also served as president of OhioHealth Riverside Methodist Hospital and before that held a variety of roles, including chief operating officer, vice president of clinical services, associate medical director, and associate and assistant director of the Family Practice Residency program. Most recently, he served as OhioHealth's Executive Vice President while transitioning to the CEO. Prior to that he was Senior Vice President for Acute Care Operations overseeing central and regional hospital operations, home care, nursing, inpatient case management, trauma leadership, shared support services, transfer center, and safety and security.

In addition to his career in medicine, Dr. Markovich has a laudable military career. He retired as a Major General after 38 years of service, most recently serving as the Commander of the Ohio Air National Guard. Prior to his senior leadership roles, Dr. Markovich logged more than 2,000 flying hours as a fighter pilot, completed three overseas deployments to the Middle East and led the development of the medical-response task force that responds to medical disasters in the State of Ohio.

Dr. Markovich is also a teacher, author and national speaker. He currently serves as a member of the National Veteran's Memorial Museum Board and the Columbus Symphony Board and has been active in the past on JobsOhio, the United Way of Central Ohio and the Simon Kenton Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He is a diplomat on the American Board of Family Practice and a member of the American Academy of Family Practice.

Dr. Markovich earned a Bachelor of Science in engineering from the University of Michigan and a Master of Business Administration from Wright State University in Dayton. He lives in Dublin with his wife and three children.
